

2010 Federal Budget Breakfast

Our two dynamic speakers Dr Stephen Kirchner, Research Fellow with the Economics Program at the Centre for Independent Studies, and Matthew Hassan, Senior Economist at Westpac Bank will provide expert analysis of the 2010 Federal Budget and its impact on your business and the Australian Economy.

This evaluation will include detailed insights into important issues such as:
Interest rates, inflation, employment, superannuation and government spending/cuts and the Economic Stimulus Package.

Please join us at this exciting post-Budget event

Dr Stephen Kirchner is a Research Fellow with the Economics Program at the Centre for Independent Studies. Previously, he was an economist with Action Economics, LLC and Director of Economic Research with Standard & Poor's Institutional Market Services, based in Sydney and Singapore. He has also worked as an adviser to members of the Australian House of Representatives and Senate.

He has lectured in economics at the University of New South Wales, Macquarie University and the University of Technology, Sydney. He has a BA (Hons) from the Australian National University, a Master of Economics (Hons) from Macquarie University and a PhD in economics from the University of New South Wales.

Matthew Hassan is one of Australia's leading economic commentators, with over 15 years experience as a practicing economist. His specific areas of interest are Australia's housing markets, the consumer sector, business planning and the operation of monetary and fiscal policy.

Joining Westpac's Economic Research team in 2007, Matthew previously held senior positions with leading Australasian economic consultancies, BIS Shrapnel and the New Zealand Institute of Economic Research. He has conducted a wide range of detailed economic studies and has been responsible for managing, compiling, editing and presenting many high-profile economic forecasting reports.
